From: City of Craig Emergency Operations Center (EOC),
Contact: Brian Templin, Deputy Public Information
Officer, 907-826-3275
Press Release: 007, First Confirmed Case of COVID-19 in Craig, Alaska

For Immediate Release

Craig City staff was notified by Alaska Public Health on Friday, April 10th that they had received notice of the first confirmed COVID-19 case in Craig. Public health and the division of epidemiology is currently conducting a case investigation to determine how the patient was exposed and the potential scope of contacts. Additional information will be released as it is available.

The Craig Emergency Operations Center staff will continue to meet and will determine what actions need to be taken in light of the confirmed case in Craig. All existing quarantine and other measures will remain for the time being.

With the holiday weekend upon us, we are strongly advising residents to follow all health mandates and advisories to reduce the risk of spreading the virus in Craig. These measures include:

- Do not socialize with persons outside of your household
- Maintain good social distancing at all times keeping at least six feet between persons
- Keep all trips for essential services to a minimum to avoid contact and wear a face mask/covering when you do need to make essential service trips
- Stay home as much as possible
- Wash your hands frequently and avoid touching your face as much as possible
- If you have symptoms or have a temperature of 100.4° F or higher contact your primary healthcare provider and self isolate immediately

The City of Craig Emergency Operations Center will continue to work with Alaska Public Health and will provide updated information as it is available.

The City of Craig will continue to monitor COVID-19 reports and information and provide links and up to date information about the City of Craig response at the city's website. For information go to www.craigak.com or www.craigak.com/covid.
