GENERAL CITY INFORMATION

The City of Thorne Bay is a second-class city incorporated August 2, 1982. The City currently operates under a Mayor form of government. The City Council appoints a City Administrator and City Clerk to oversee the day-to-day affairs of the City.

The City Council is comprised of seven members elected to govern the City. The Mayor is elected from the Council by the voters to serve a two-year term (2-yr). The Mayor presides over the City Council meetings, act as ceremonial head of the city, and signs documents on the city's behalf upon council authorization or as otherwise authorized by municipal code.

City Council Meetings are held on the First and Third Tuesday of every month, in the City Hall Council Chambers. Meetings begin at 6:30 p.m., with a workshop beginning at 6:00 p.m. Packets are typically uploaded to our website by 4:00 p.m. the Friday preceding the meeting.

CITY COUNCIL

Council members are responsible for management of the city's affairs and are held answerable to the community they serve.

ALASKA PUBLIC OFFICES COMMISSION
2020 Public Official Financial Disclosure
Covering Jan. 1– Dec. 31, 2019

THIS IS A PUBLIC DOCUMENT

Attached to this page is a sample paper POFD. It contains areas that are highlighted in YELLOW that specify what goes into a specific area. It also has areas highlighted in BLUE that provide an example of what information goes on a particular line. There are also a few notes to show you some helpful hints about filling out the form.

The “things to remember” list below is made to help ensure that you are not the subject of a complaint. For instance, if someone knows you receive alimony and you don’t report it, you could have a complaint filed against you. APOC does not want to have you be the subject of a complaint if that can be avoided.

Things to remember:

1. You need to provide contact information that you actually use. Do not put down a phone number or e-mail address that you don’t use. If APOC needs to get in touch with you, uses the information you provided, and can’t reach you that becomes a problem. We generally try to reach you to let you know that the filing date is coming up or that there is an issue with your filing. If we send you an e-mail and it does not come back to us as undeliverable we assume you have received it. It is not the municipal clerk’s responsibility to contact you.
2. Print plainly. The law reads that the information must be legible”. Print plainly, because if we can’t read what is written on the form we will return it to you, and that means it was never accepted by us.
3. Put information about the income received on the form in the proper place. If you are getting paid from a regular job the income goes in the “Salaried Employment” section. If you are receiving a pension that goes in the “Other Income” section. You don’t need a specific number. There are ranges on the form, use the ranges to report income.
4. Remember to include your PFD, any Native Corporation dividends, and any dividends from investments under dividends and interests.
5. Other income includes social security payments, sale of property, alimony and child support, pensions, retirement cash outs.
6. Gifts over $250 need to be reported. This includes travel. Read the instructions—this does not include gifts from your immediate family.
7. Do you own your house? If so this is a real property interest and needs to be reported.
8. Loans. The person or bank that loaned you the money is the lender, the person or bank to whom the money is due is the creditor. The person or bank who pledges that the loan will be repaid is the guarantor. You have a loan from First National Bank and you make your payments to First National Bank—First National bank is the lender and the creditor. So the filer or spouse or child is the debtor, First National Bank is the creditor or lender.
